

LOVE

In most of bible scriptures they have change the name of love to charity. love is not charity! The reason for this change is for the benefits of themselves for their own gains. Charity is out of love. Love stands alone! God is love! If we had to call a name for the Creator, we may call the Creator, 'love', because YHWH is love. YHWH is the source of love, the very fabric of love, the core of love.

Love comes from the Creator; we are here, we are born, we are beautiful, and we have love. But this love in most cases have been twisted by the way people uses it. Love is pure even though we blaspheme it. Love does not change from it's purity, it is not corrupt.

Even though we say to each other 'I love you' in so many different ways we are still putting away the love and hating on the other hand. We are still participating in wrongdoing, Which is not love. Love is not the one being corrupted, it is persons continuing in wrongdoing that has made love look corrupted.

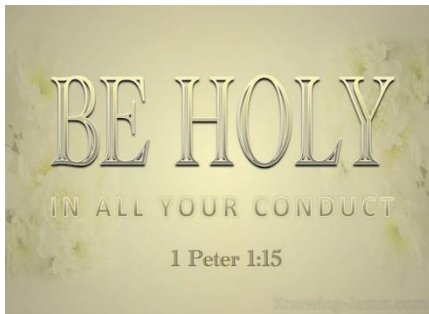

Money is money, and money does what money is supposed to be doing. Money can do some beautiful things in this world, but money can also be responsible for doing horrible things in the world even up to ending lives. Remember, YHWH God has authority over all life. nevertheless, I quote: "Money is what meets a response in all things". Ecclesiastes 10:19. Let us look at all things as good. Yet, money has a way of causing corruption and death. And yet money remains the same. It is the user behind the money that gives money a bad name.

So now, you can see that the user behind love is what gives love a bad name. Many would say that God's love is paradoxical. If one will only get to know God, that theory would be deleted. It is not the same as saying that the devil is love? One may want to put God as an oxymoron where love is concerned, but YHWH is justified in such cases because of being the creator of us all.

If we say we love YHWH, then in all trueness, we should be loving one another. When it comes to believing in God, it should not be categorise as being religious, but rather as the way of living. The way of love. We have heard the atrocity of those who say they represented God and in so doing put darkness on God's name, his residence and those representing YHWH.

Realistically, we should be all believing in YHWH God, then we would be people living peacefully with each other and there would be no talk of destruction in the world, no talk of cleansing the world, no talk about YHWH's wrath. Everyone will be in union with God.

“BE HOLY AS I AM HOLY.”

From the quote above, we will all be loving one another. We will have a beautiful world and life eternal. I am in fact talking about a ‘Utopia World!’

The amount of love we have really reflects our closeness and relationship to God. Yahsah reveals the love of the Father to us. “

Love God With All Your Heart, Mind And Soul, Love Your Neighbour As Yourselfes.

“No love is greater” “Love is kind” “Love believes the truth” “Love is righteous” and “Love is the fulfilment of the law.”

“God so love the world that he gave his only Son”. That quote is spoken frequently by most believers when speaking about God or when bringing people to God. It is a worldwide quote from the bible scriptures. It is almost like the quote: “In God we trust.” Bible quotes are repeated in government places, palaces and some big crowd events. Yet here we are in this world of chaos, wars, genocides, torture; the list goes on. These biblical quotes that have been mentioned across the world has hardly made any real difference.

Love is spiritual even if you do not know God, there is certainly a measure of love in all of us and that is because we have all been shown love in whatever format it has been ministered. Without getting into light or deep details, that love is determined on the way you have been bought up as a child or how life has treated you growing up even as an adult. But the love anyone has outside of YHWH would really be limited. The reason for this, is because no one is able to love their neighbours as themselves until they are able to love God with heart, mind and soul.

Where there is no love there is corruption. Think about those who rule in their perspective countries. Are they showing love to the people? Compare how any leaders treat you to how you treat your children. Now ask yourself the question, do those leaders really love you?

Importantly, you need to know God because you will experience real love and protection. One cannot love their neighbours without first loving God. By love we can change the world for the better because there is no evil in love.

The truth of the matter, the general population have failed to show continuous love, the love that is acceptable in YHWH's eyes. Don't judge yourself, we can only understand love when we understand the things pertaining to the Almighty Father in the heavens.

The truth is, we are not really taught the trueness of love, and that is why our behaviour is to be questioned especially when considering the state of our world. Think about the things that effect our capability to love. And the things we are not doing to enhance the ability to love one another. Is it not the case of that, with the things we put into our minds, like violence, media, books and word of mouth, I am talking about all the things that do not benefit our way of thinking, which in turn causes most of us to be treated with negativity.

If we know unconditional love, we will know how beautiful it really is, and that will surely transform us into God-like children. Prove yourselves children of light, and thus become children of YHWH God.

With Love. Noble Healed By God
